

LONDON FINE ART STUDIOS
TEACHING THE CRAFT OF DRAWING AND PAINTING

DE LASZLO FOUNDATION APPLICATION

De Laszlo Foundation Application

History

London Fine Art Studios combines the classical techniques of the European Masters with the principles of direct painting.

London Fine Art Studios is one of the leading art education institutions in the UK, for this it has gained the recognition and support of numerous organisations, including the de Laszlo Foundation.

The de Laszlo Foundation was set up to support research and training in keeping with the legacy of Philip de László. It has generously extended its support to London Fine Art Studios, recognising in this way the school's contribution to arts education in the UK.

Thanks to their generous support, every year a minimum of three promising artists will each receive a bursary to help further their studies at the Studios.

Eligibility

- Scholarships will only be awarded to current students who have completed a minimum of two consecutive terms at the school.
- Applicants must demonstrate an ambition to become fine artists within the figurative tradition.

For full details on how to apply please see To apply section below.

Important Information

- London Fine Art Studios will not accept applications from professional artists or those working outside of the figurative tradition.
- Applications must be submitted in full, either via email or as a hard copy. We will not accept submissions spread across multiple formats and/or devices.

- Under no circumstances can applicants use London Fine Art Studios facilities to print or send their documents.
 - Any manipulation of images submitted with the application will automatically invalidate it.
 - Applications must be received by 5pm on the day of deadline, any received after this time will not be entered for consideration.
 - Students already on a fee waiver scheme are eligible to apply.
 - Recipients will be expected to provide receipts and an expenses log to demonstrate how funds have been used to further their studies.
 - Selection will be made by the directors of London Fine Art Studios.
 - Recipients will be expected to help out at the school. This includes but is not limited to:
 - Upkeep of studios and communal spaces
 - Help at all events (preparation, realisation and tidying up)
 - Participation in the extra-curricular programme (art history talks, book group discussions)
-

Selection Procedure:

- Receipt of applications will be acknowledged via email.
 - Successful candidates will be notified within 6 weeks of the application deadline.
 - The decision of the selection panel is final and not subject to review.
-

Reapplication:

- Re-application is accepted, provided that the terms and conditions are met.
 - Consecutive re-submissions are eligible for consideration.
-

To apply:

- Fill in this standard application form in a clear, accurate and articulate manner.
- Submit 4 drawings and/or paintings illustrating your progress.

THE DE LASZLO ARCHIVE TRUST

- THE CATALOGUE RAISONNÉ OF WORKS BY PHILIP DE LÁSZLÓ, M.V.O., P.R.B.A., 1869-1937 -

LONDON FINE ART STUDIOS

TEACHING THE CRAFT OF DRAWING AND PAINTING

DE LASZLO FOUNDATION APPLICATION

First Name(s) _____ Family Name _____

Male Female Date of Birth _____

Home Address _____

Telephone _____ Email _____

Art Education, Artistic Background and Training to Date:

Please list all Awards, Competitions entered (and Results)

Statement of Intent

*(500 words, must include: how the money will be spent;
how it will aid your development; how you will contribute to the school)*